Re: Misrepresented instrument – bill of attainder / foreign bills of exchange / Case Number:
570030812$@CSRL, dated November 30, 2023 and any attachment associated thereto:

Stare Decisis Law

*“A court cannot confer jurisdiction where none existed and cannot make a void proceeding valid. It is clear and well-established law that a void order can be challenge in any court.”. See Old Wayne Mut. L Assoc. v. McDonough, 204 U.S. 8, 27 S.Ct. 236 (1907)

For the record, I am Santiel Marvin Raphael Chambers-Bey, a natural person, in full life, in propria persona, sui juris. My nationality / citizenship is Moorish American, being aboriginal and indigenous sovereign national and heiress of the Moroccan Empire, and a foreign national inhabitant near the corporate [REDACTED] blic. I come now making special appearance under duress as authorized representative, ex rel. the artificial corporate person / nom de guerre SANTIEL MARVIN CHAMBERS, and I hereby challenge your jurisdiction via quo warranto on the grounds of lack of jurisdiction, fraud, and improper venue.

Jurisdiction and Venue

I hereby invoke my treaty right to consular jurisdiction under Articles 20 and 21 of the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1836 between the United States of North America and the Moroccan Empire:

Article 20. If a citizen of the United States, or any persons under their protection, shall have any disputes with each other, the Consul shall decide between the parties; and whenever the Consul shall require any aid or assistance from our Government, to enforce his decision, it shall be immediately granted to him.

Article 21. If a citizen of the United States should kill or wound a Moor, or, on the contrary, if a Moor shall kill or wound a citizen of the United States, the law of the country shall take place, and equal justice shall be rendered, the consul assisting at the trial; and if any delinquent shall make his escape, the consul shall not be answerable for him in any manner whatever.

In support, see Kolovrat v. Oregon, 366 U.S. 187, 194, 81 S.Ct.922 (1961) (“A state cannot refuse to give foreign nationals their treaty rights because of fear that valid international agreements may possibly not work completely to satisfaction of state authorities. Under the supremacy clause of the United State Constitution Art. VI, clause 2, state policies [....] must give way to overriding federal treaties and conflicting arrangements.”).
